THE OFFICIAL CATHOLIC DIRECTORY 1960

Published Annually in May by

Business Services for Subscribers

Appreciation must be expressed for the number and the quality of the advertisements in this issue. Without the revenue derived from this source, the price of The Directory to its subscribers would be prohibitive. The announcements in the front and rear sections have been carefully selected and scrutinized to the end that their statements may be accepted with confidence.

The serviceable Classified Buyers Guide has been expanded by the addition of many new advertisers, so that the 714 different product and service classifications present a greater choice than ever before. Almost any product or service needed by church, school or institution, is indexed in the thousands of source listings which follow.

Whenever you want to know "who makes it," "who supplies it," or "who can do it" — consult this Buyers Guide presented below for your greater convenience. Subscribers who make it a practice to study the Classified Index and the advertisements to which it is the key, find it quickly solves their problems of supply, equipment and maintenance.

Your mention of The Official Catholic Directory when responding to advertisements will be helpful to you as well as to the advertisers and the publishers.

Revised Summary of Statistics

Subscribers generally, statisticians and analysts in particular, will find the presentation of Catholic statistics in the General Summary of greater help than ever before.

The 63 categories of personnel and institutions have been regrouped, starting with religious personnel; parishes and missions; educational institutions and students; teaching personnel; charitable and welfare institutions and services, and the vital statistics for the year just ended.

Totals for all categories are given for the component dioceses of each State and for the nine major sections of the U. S. A. The tables comprise some 11,533 statistics and are an exact break-down of the Catholic market in the United States, presented in standard statistical form for easy reference and comparison.

The new tables for January 1, 1960 follow the United States section of this Directory.

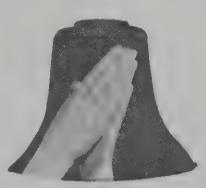
THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION • WASHINGTON, D. C.



As the largest and most magnificent Catholic edifice in the United States, The National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception deserves the finest spiritual enrichment. In the world-famed Schulmerich Bells, it has just that.

As far back as 1954, the late Samuel Cardinal Stritch saw fit to present to the Shrine, a "Basilican"® Bells Instrument and "Arlington"* Carillon—by Schulmerich.

At the Shrine dedication, these same bells played a significant part. Throughout the procession—and during the special dedicatory Masses—thousands felt the surging uplift of Schulmerich Bells—so wondrous in their beauty—unparalleled in their purity. Both before the ceremony and after—Catholics were stirred by a musical depth and range, the sound of which many of them had never heard.

Today, the Angelus and Mass Bells ring out daily at the Shrine through Schulmerich Bells. And the Capital regularly thrills to hear the traditional church hymns as they ring forth from the Schulmerich Carillon. And amazing as it may seem—it's all done automatically. Once set on a program clock, no one need lift a finger.

Wherever they are played—at Cardinal Cushing's Boston residence, the North American College in Rome, or from any of the over 1,000 Catholic installations—Schulmerich Bells serve as a tower of inspiration — with the power to touch a responsive chord in the hearts of the faithful everywhere. For Schulmerich truly represents the very ultimate in bells—a universal blessing in the accepted Catholic tradition.

COLOR teaches children in today's BRITANNICA JUNIOR

In BJ, the color camera follows the reproduction of a baby chick and probes through the eye of the microscope. Color also explains and identifies. The scene at the left, for example, would be just another photo in black-and-white . . .

. . . only color reveals the grandeur and beauty that instantly identifies Bryce Canyon and makes it unique. This functional use of color is one of many visual aids that make Britannica Junior so easy to use and so rewarding for those who use it.

Our Lady of Sorrows sanctuary as executed by Potente is dominated by an imposing yet gracefully proportioned imported Italian marble altar — early Christian in concept yet contemporary in feeling. The larger-than-life bronze Pieta emphasizes the altar. Simplicity of conception and color harmony by Potente throughout the entire interior created a reverently inspirational atmosphere.

Our Lady of Sorrows Church
1712 Oxmoor Road

Birmingham, Alabama
The Rev. Herman C. Cazalas, Pastor

The interior architecture created the necessity for strict observance by Potente of correct overall proportion in every interior element. When the nave is entered the result is immediately apparent.

Our Lady of Sorrows . . .
typifies a number of Potente interior commissions recently completed throughout the country in new, contemporary-styled churches.

Important in every interior was the need to create an atmosphere of devotional warmth.

Where does voluntary philanthropy end and begging begin? What makes people feel good about giving to some causes . . . yet feel dollared to death when approached by others? Knowing the answer can mean the difference between success or failure to meet your financial needs. It is also one of the reasons why so many colleges, hospitals and social welfare agencies have called on the American City Bureau to help them raise money. There is no reason for your institution to have to beg. Good fund-raising is never begging, but an organized and well-directed professional operation. If your institution needs money, it will pay you to invite us to a cost-free exploratory conference. Write to 3520 Prudential Plaza, Chicago 1, Illinois. Offices also in New York and Sacramento, California.

Factors to Consider
ABOUT FUND-RAISING COUNSEL

EXPERIENCE

In the skilled hands of an organization devoted for many years to Church fund-raising, the possibilities for success are multiplied many times. Since its founding over 54 years ago, this firm has had the privilege of directing campaigns which have raised more than $1,750,000,000. The majority of these campaigns have been for Church causes.

THE DIRECTOR

Next to experience and integrity of the firm, of vital importance is the person who will direct the appeal. This director, aside from experience, must have good character and personality, good judgment, a Christian concept and background, and the "know-how" to muster all the forces to serve most effectively the cause. Our directors have an average of over 14 years with this firm and have had outstandingly successful records in the Church and the Church-area campaigns they have served.

"PLAN PROPOSED"

A most important consideration in retaining fund-raising counsel is the "Plan Proposed" and its record of success. This plan provides: 1) The funds required 2) The "added values" a Church appeal should have in spiritual advance overtones 3) Completion of the appeal's project in a relatively short time with substantial savings in expense.

First in Fund Raising

RECENT OVERSUBSCRIBED CAMPAIGNS FOR THE CHURCH AND HER INSTITUTIONS INCLUDE:

St. Joseph Hospital, Memphis, Tennessee, $1,000,000; Cathedral of St. Raymond, Diocese of Joliet in Illinois, $2,567,631; Queen of the Valley Hospital, Napa, California, $353,720; St. Joseph Memorial Hospital, Murphysboro, Illinois, $615,239; Mercy Hospital, Devils Lake, North Dakota, $249,083; Church of the Little Flower, Springfield, Illinois, $280,904; St. Francis de Sales Church for Bennington Central Catholic High School, Bennington, Vermont, $344,980; Holy Rosary Slovak Church, Chicago, Illinois, $204,071; Catholic High Schools, Diocese of Joliet in Illinois, $1,455,000; St. Mary's Hospital, Kankakee, Illinois, $912,226; Regina Nursing Home and Home for the Aged, Evansville, Indiana, $753,969; St. John's Hospital, Oxnard, California (2 campaigns) $992,172; and St. Joseph Hospital, Joliet, Illinois, $1,806,464.

"THE WHITE SMOKE"

from the new article on the Pope

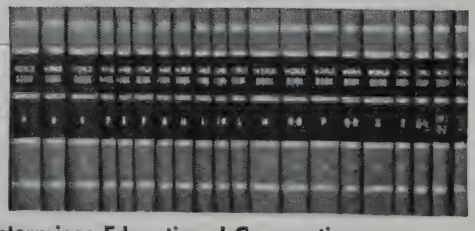
in the 1960 World Book Encyclopedia

Photograph of Pope John XXIII from the 1960 World Book Encyclopedia

A thin wisp of white smoke signals a new era in the history of the Catholic world.

Waiting thousands in St. Peter's Square release their tension with cheers of "Viva il papa." Around the world, hundreds of millions more face a future full of hope with a feeling of exultation.

The revised and enlarged article on the Pope in the 1960 World Book Encyclopedia is but one example of the manner in which the editors document important details along with interesting facts. World Book is not only thorough, but readable and memorable. The numerous articles of special Catholic interest have been carefully prepared by authorities among the clergy such as Father Joachim Smet who authored the informative section on Vatican City. In fact, some of the world's foremost scholars on every subject are numbered among the imposing list of thousands of contributors to the 1960 World Book Encyclopedia.



In the school . . . in the library . . . in the home . . . World Book continues to be an invaluable aid to modern living and education.

COMMENTS ON MISSALE ROMANUM No. 25

(What a priest wrote about Missale Romanum No. 25)

"Allow me to take this occasion to congratulate you on the splendid piece of workmanship that it (the Missale) is.

First of all the binding is superbly done, a thing of beauty really, and a masterpiece of workmanship. The printing job leaves nothing to be desired; and the set up of the various prefaces printed across the entire page is very well done; and the canon is perfect in every way, again splendidly printed across the entire page in fine large and beautiful type.

The book opens out so perfectly from the very first time; and the paper is like velvet, very well chosen indeed. You have reason to be proud of this fine product of the printers' and bookbinders' art. Everyone who has seen it is greatly taken with it; and I have recommended it to several when they are looking for a new Missale."

Photos: School of Our Lady of Sorrows, White Plains, N. Y.

RECORDS kept by a Far Western school show that maintenance costs were dramatically reduced—from $27.00 to $16.53 per pupil per year—when a planned maintenance program was instituted.

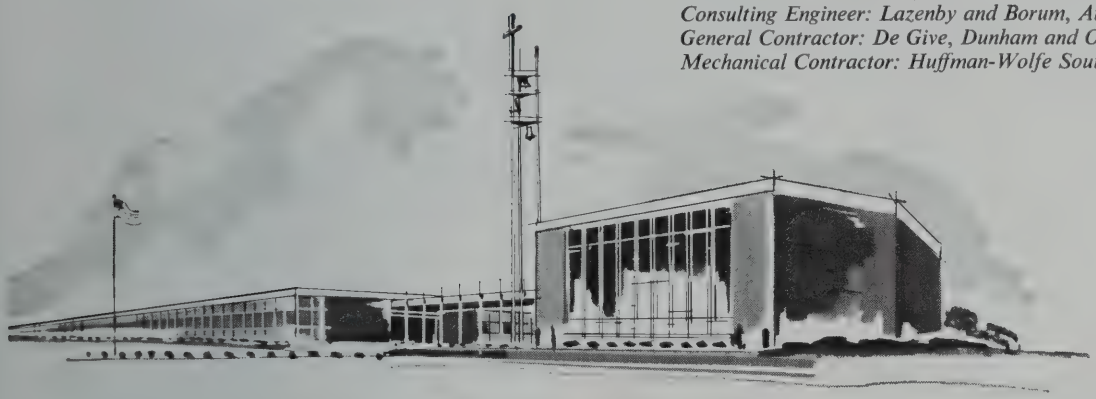
Father James L. Harrison,
Principal of St. Pius X
High School, Atlanta, says:



"Honeywell students get

Students at St. Pius X High School are able to concentrate on their classwork because the Honeywell thermostat on the wall helps them keep alert.

thermostats help our more out of classwork"

Architect: N. J. Pascullis, Macon
Consulting Engineer: Lazenby and Borum, Atlanta
General Contractor: De Give, Dunham and O'Neill, Atlanta
Mechanical Contractor: Huffman-Wolfe Southern Corporation, Atlanta

Year-round air conditioning allows St. Pius X teachers to adjust temperatures to fit specific school activities.

"We believe students must be comfortable to do their best," says Father Harrison. "That's why we completely air-conditioned St. Pius X High School. And we count on Honeywell thermostats to assure our students the best possible temperatures for learning."

A Honeywell thermostat on the wall of each classroom lets the teacher adjust the temperature to offset varying effects of weather, occupancy and student activities. This assures maximum comfort for both teachers and pupils at all times. Helps both do better.

And St. Pius X High School proves again that air conditioning can pay for itself. The architect was able to design a compact building, the core of which could be put to maximum educational use. As a result, the school cost no more to build than a conventional building. And it is expected that the cost of operating the system will pay for itself through reduced cleaning, painting and decorating costs.

Your school will also benefit from Honeywell temperature controls. Honeywell will work with your architect, consulting engineer or air conditioning contractor from planning stage to completion. Ask them about Honeywell. Or write Honeywell, Dept. OC-5-58, Minneapolis 8, Minnesota.

Sister Mary de Sales C. S. J. adjusts the classroom thermostat to attain the best temperature for learning.

the SCHIEBER PLAN

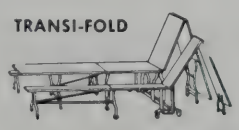
A simple formula for selecting the multi-purpose room equipment correctly engineered to meet your particular problem.

IS THIS YOUR MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM?

If you have adequate wall space for pockets, use In-Wall, the only all-steel unit. Seating for 20 unfolds from each pocket. It is the most substantial, trouble-free unit built. Never has one worn out. The first installation, now 29 years old, is still in daily use.

OR IS THIS YOUR MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM?

If wall space is limited or floor plan obstructed and single-depth pockets are impractical, use Multiple-depth units. Pockets hold 2, 3 or 4 units, seating 40, 60 or 80, in pockets of 10″, 15″ or 20″, respectively. Pockets can be fully or partially recessed or installed against the wall.



Use portables only when you can't for one reason or another use wall pocket models. Remember, you must provide storage space for them.

HIS HOLINESS POPE JOHN XXIII

painted at the Vatican by

BERNARD GODWIN

THE PORTRAIT above is the first portrait of Pope John XXIII and was painted from life. The painting was done in the small Throne Room at the Vatican during private audiences and the result is a true characterization of the Pope emphasizing warmth, wisdom and charm.

NOW, for the first time, the painting is reproduced as a greeting card on fine canvas-like stock, with gold bronzed borders. Each card contains a Christmas message from His Holiness and is suitable for framing as a gift and memento.

St. Anthony's – Davenport's Oldest Church

Early History:

The history of St. Anthony's church is closely associated with the Sac and Fox Indian tribes, the Blackhawk war, the Winnebago treaty, and the westward movement in America.

A quarter section, west of the Mississippi, was ceded to the U. S. Government by the Indians in the Blackhawk Purchase which became the nucleus of the State of Iowa. "A whole square" of this land was designated for church property. St. Anthony's was planned the very year the city of Davenport was chartered and completed in 1738.

Father John Anthony Pelamourgues of France was the first pastor of St. Anthony's. He, with Father Mazzuchelli, militia man George Davenport, and financier (and Indian interpreter) Antoine Le Claire, did much toward the early development of the area.

...famous landmark preserved with a Perma-Stone Exterior

Color photo shows St. Anthony's Church in Davenport, after the dignity and character of the original structure was restored by Perma-Stone, the original moulded stone wall-facing. During the process, many of the identifying features of the revered landmark were preserved.

Perma-Stone has been used on hundreds of churches, old and new. Free folder explains many Perma-Stone advantages — its permanent beauty, economical first cost, freedom from upkeep expense, insulating value and fuel savings. MUST they AVOID confession... rather than ADMIT they CAN'T HEAR you?

When penitents with impaired hearing must strain to grasp the confessor's individual words . . . the true meaning of the sacrament is largely lost to them.
It is easy to understand the embarrassment these sensitive people feel — why they slink past the confessional, ashamed to reveal their affliction.
Yet often they need the solace most . . . and there are more of them than many realize. The Apostolate for the Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing has made a life-time study of this subject. Reverend George J. Haye, co-Director, reports that 18% (1 in 6) of all Catholics suffer impaired hearing and as a direct result "may become disposed to lose their precious faith."
This potent but "invisible barrier" to confession can be overcome readily — with Confessionaire, the ideal hearing aid for confessionals. Over 5000 Confessionaire installations are already in regular use in churches throughout the United States and Canada.

NEW "TP" MODEL — MINIATURIZED
In the new miniaturized "TP" model, an unobtrusive (3½ x 5 inch) case houses an efficient, noiseless, transistorized amplifier that simply plugs into any standard outlet.
Confessionaire is as effortless to use as a telephone. The penitent merely holds the convenient receiver to his ear . . . without in any way revealing his handicap. Suddenly the priest's whispered words become clear and distinct and comforting.

30-day FREE TRIAL!
You are invited to use a sample Confessionaire (or Duplex installation) in your own church for 30 days, without obligation. Unless you are completely convinced that it lightens the confessor's work and brings blessed comfort to those in need . . . simply return the equipment and owe us nothing.

Effortless to use as a telephone.
New "TP" (transistor-powered) Confessionaire Model S-184. "Miniaturized" in size, unobtrusive in appearance, 3-year guarantee. Complete, ready to plug-in..... $79.50

(TOP VIEW)

Complete DUPLEX installation, with Confessionaire in each penitent's booth, plus one No. 2 Accessory Kit. (Priest's headphone, sliding panel switches and all necessary wiring.) $176.50

Confessionaire

New 16 page illustrated brochure describes Confessionaire in detail, pictures its ease of operation and simple installation. Also tells how Confessionaire may aid the "hard-of-hearing" confessor, as well.

This chapel interior benefits by the integrated efforts of our artists, craftsmen, and engineers with architect and rector. Our work in this interior includes the suspended metal tester, marble, altar, bronze tabernacle, candlesticks, and crucifix, sanctuary mosaic panel, stations of the cross, statues, lighting fixtures and stained glass windows. The theme of the windows colorfully develops the Ignatian exercises against a muted grey-blue background (see front cover). The pictorial elements and symbols are executed in sandblasted glass including ruby on blue, ruby on gold, and blue on green. The visibility of the decorative portions adds unusual interest to the texture of the bold lead patterns on the exterior.

Hints and Helps

FOR THOSE WHO USE THE CATHOLIC DIRECTORY

The exact page location of the various sections of the Directory mentioned in this Foreword may be found by consulting the alphabetical index on page vi.

A Public Service

Each year the editors of the Official Catholic Directory seek new ways of being of service to those who support it. Although the time may never be reached when the book will contain all that it could possibly have to be perfect in this respect, the latter is a goal towards which we are constantly aiming. After all, the Directory, in a broad sense, is no private enterprise carried on for purposes of personal profit. It is a work supported by its users as a public service and, as such, the format, arrangement and editorial features must be directed towards the convenience and needs of the public it is designed to serve. Nor does this policy stop with the editorial contents. The advertisements in the Directory are accepted by us with the user of the Directory in mind. It has always been our proud boast that our advertisers are selected rather than solicited. Before they appear in the Directory, the editors have made certain that the potential consumer can safely place full confidence in their products.

With this dedication to the public good in mind and because of the many editorial features and improvements constantly being included in the Directory, we believe it wise to devote some space and time towards giving you a clearer, more comprehensive idea of what the Directory contains and how to use these contents to best advantage. First then, we list a short summary of the parts of the book, after which we explain how they may be used.

What the Directory Contains

1. List of the Governing Bodies in Vatican City.

This is a list of all the officials, beginning with the Pope and continuing through the College of Cardinals. The duties of each of the Sacred Congregations and Offices together with its officials are given. A list of the National Colleges in Rome, together with a chronological table of the Popes, completes the Section.

2. List of the Provinces of the United States.

This is a list of all the Archdioceses and Dioceses of the United States arranged under the provinces to which they belong. The names of all Archbishops and Bishops together with appointment and consecration dates are given.

3. Detailed Reports from Archdioceses and Dioceses of the United States.

This section, forming the largest part of the book, gives the most detailed information on the Catholic Church in the United States. Examples of its wealth of information will be given later.

4. Detailed Reports on U. S. Possessions and Those Parts of the World in which American Priests and Religious Labor in Missionary Work.

This section contains substantially the same information on foreign territories as the preceding one does concerning the Catholic Church in the United States.

5. Special Listing of the Organization and Personnel of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

6. General Statistics on Religious Orders of Men and Women.

In this section each Religious Order lists the number of Provinces it maintains, the superiors of the Provinces, the number of various classes of religious in the province, the number and kind of institutions it serves or maintains and the Dioceses in which its members are working. It is preceded by an exhaustive cross index.

7. A special listing of those societies engaged in missionary work giving the nature of their work, the territories in which their members are engaged and the local boards in various cities which aid or support them.

8. A list of the cities, towns and villages in which there is located a church with a resident priest or a Catholic institution, or both.

This section lists each city, the state in which it is located and the abbreviation of the Archdiocese or Diocese to which it belongs. A key to these abbreviations is given on a special page located immediately preceding the alphabetical list of places.

9. List of the Hierarchy of the United States alphabetically arranged, together with their addresses.

10. List of the Hierarchy of the United States arranged according to their seniority.

11. An alphabetical list of the Clergy, which includes all priests, both Secular and those belonging to a Religious Order or Community.

This list gives the diocese to which the priest belongs, the city and street address or institution at which he now resides, or his last known address.

12. Necrology of the United States Hierarchy and Clergy.

Here are listed alphabetically all those prelates and clergymen who have died since the last issue of the Directory. The address and diocese of each are given, together with the date of death.

13. A General Summary.

This is a general recapitulation of the statistics of each Archdiocese and Diocese. Total numbers for the United States and its possessions are given.

How to Find Things . . .

All these things the Directory contains—a wealth of names, statistics and relevant data such as few other books of reference encompass. It is indeed so much matter placed together in limited space that one may be excused a certain perplexity as to the quickest way to secure some particular point of information. A few pointers, then, may not be amiss.

. . . About the General Plan . . .

Each of the Reports of the various Archdioceses and Dioceses is alike in so far as the general layout is concerned. There is first a list of Officials. Then the churches in the See City are given, alphabetically arranged. This is followed by a list of the Churches outside the city, alphabetically arranged according to places of location. With each Church are listed the parochial schools, missions, stations, and cemeteries associated with it. (Parochial cemeteries are identified by [CEM]; interparochial or joint cemeteries by [JC].) Following this is a listing of the Institutions of the Diocese. In the listings, arrangement of these Institutions follows closely the order of their presentation in the General Recapitulation. Postal delivery unit numbers are printed following street addresses in the diocesan listings. After the Institutional listings, there are summaries of the Religious Communities of Men and the Religious Communities of Women in the Diocese; a list of Diocesan cemeteries, if any; a Necrology listing those priests who have died during the year and, lastly, a Diocesan Recapitulation of Statistics.

. . . About Prelates . . . Let us suppose you want to know something about a prelate. If you know his name, the best place to look first is in the Alphabetical list of Secular and Regular Priests of the United States. This will give his full name and address as well as the Diocese to which he belongs. Upon turning to the Diocese, you will find, usually, the dates of his ordination, appointment and consecration, as well as the dates of his transference in the event he served in any other Diocese. You will usually also find his secretary's name and address, a point of information sometimes very useful. If you want to know what place he would take in solemn procession, consult the Seniority list of Bishops which immediately follows the Alphabetical list of Bishops and immediately precedes the Alphabetical List of Secular and Regular Priests.

. . . About Officials . . . In the event you wish some information concerning Diocesan officials, the Superintendent of Schools, let us say, you will find it in the Administrative Officials section directly under the name of the Bishop in each Diocese. In most cases both home and office addresses are given. You will also discover the ecclesiastical degrees and sometimes the higher educational degrees which should follow his name and formal address. All the officials connected with the governance of the Diocese are listed in this section. In the event that the address of the official you seek is not given, look him up in the Alphabetical List of Clergy.

. . . About Places . . . The place list of cities and towns in the United States tells you at a glance to just what archdiocese or diocese any particular one belongs. The cities and towns are arranged in strict alphabetical order and are followed by the abbreviation of the Archdiocese or Diocese where located. When a town has no post office, the correct mailing address or Post Office will be found in italics, immediately following the town desired, e.g. Reno, Iowa Cumberland P.O. DM. The Post Office address will be found in its alphabetical position with the name of the town where the church or institution is located immediately following in Roman type, e.g. Cumberland, Iowa Reno DM. Different localities have particular ways of abbreviating Rural Free Delivery. You will encounter it as: R.F.D.; R.R.; R. A key to the Diocesan abbreviations used will be found conveniently placed immediately preceding the alphabetical list of places.

. . . About Statistics . . . If you are interested in securing statistical information you can find it in the individual Recapitulations at the end of each Archdiocese and Diocese. These Recapitulations give the number of Institutions and the number of people attending them for the entire Diocese. We have taken from these Recapitulations those figures we consider to be most vital and summarized them in a general Recapitulation giving totals for the entire country. This will be found directly after the Clergy List and Necrology.

. . . About Clergymen . . . If you know the clergyman's name, the fastest way to discover his address is to look in the clergy list. This will give you his Diocese and address. If there is a number in brackets in the listing, he is stationed at the Church bearing that number in the city and Diocese indicated. The numbers are inserted only for Churches in the larger cities having ten or more Churches. If you are not sure of his name but know the city or town he is in, look that up in the Alphabetical list of places. This will give you the Diocese. The first priest's name in a parish listing is that of the Pastor unless otherwise identified. Often a parish has both a Pastor and an Administrator. In such instances, the latter's title is spelled out and the listing follows that of the name of the Pastor.

. . . About Religious Order Priests . . . Those priests belonging to Religious Orders are listed at the Churches and Institutions they serve. You will find at the end of each Diocesan report a list of the Religious Communities of Men active in that Diocese and the Churches and Institutions at which they are stationed. If you should desire further information about any particular order you can consult the Index to Religious Orders which directs you to more detailed and comprehensive information concerning the order. Since many Religious Order priests are engaged in Missionary work outside the United States the abbreviation of that province of his order to which he belongs is given, as well as his mailing address.

. . . About Brothers . . . In the United States, as well as in other countries, there are men who, while not ordained priests, live in community in the same manner as Religious Order priests. Some of these men are attached to Religious Orders of priests while others have formed their own Religious Community. Thus, in the Society of Jesus, there are ordained priests and brothers. On the other hand the Brothers of the Christian Schools, for example, have no connection with any Religious Order priests. You will find immediately following the Statistics on Religious Orders of Priests a listing of the Orders of Brothers who are independent of Religious Orders of Priests. Those Brothers who belong to Religious Orders of Priests are listed with their Order in the section devoted to Religious Orders of Priests.

. . . About Nuns . . . There are approximately 275 different Religious Communities of Women operating in the United States. To find general statistics on any particular one the first thing to consult is the Statistics of Religious Orders Section. Here you will find the number of Sisters, Postulants, Novices, etc. of each province, the number and kind of Institutions they maintain or serve and a listing of the Archdioceses and Dioceses in which they are represented. If you want to know, therefore, where the motherhouse of the nuns teaching at a certain school is located you have only to look the name up in the Religious Order Section. On the other hand, if you wish to know whether a certain order is represented at a certain school, you have only to consult the list of Religious Communities of Women in the Diocese, which you will find at the end of the report of each Archdiocese and Diocese.

The Complete Edition As you probably know, the Catholic Directory appears annually in three different forms. Volume One is the United States edition and contains information only on those Dioceses in the United States and its possessions. Volume Two is the Complete edition and contains everything in Volume One to which are added also Diocesan reports for Canada, Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales, Australia, New Zealand, Oceania, Bermuda, Cuba, Mexico and the Philippines. These reports for Canada are similar to those for the United States. There is also a List of Places for Canada which may be used exactly as the United States Place List. Volume Three contains everything in Volumes One and Two and is very substantially bound in cloth.

In this attempt to facilitate your use of the Directory, we have tried to cover all the questions which may arise. However, we realize that there may be some special aspect, peculiar to your work, upon which we have not touched. If this is so, please feel free to call on us for further information. As we have said, the Directory is a work of Public Service. Each year refinements and improvements are added. With your cooperation there will be more of these in the future. It is your Directory and, ultimately, will take whatever form serves you best. Accordingly, your corrections and suggestions are warmly welcomed.

John XXIII, now gloriously reigning.

PART I

Hierarchy of the Catholic Church

The Catholic Hierarchy, or the governing body of the Catholic Church, consists of His Holiness the Supreme Pontiff, assisted by the Sacred College of Cardinals and by several Sacred Congregations, or permanent ecclesiastical committees, of which the Cardinals are the chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Nuncios and Delegates, Vicars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and other Prelates.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE

BISHOP OF ROME AND VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST,
SUCCESSOR OF ST. PETER, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES, SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH.
PATRIARCH OF THE WEST, PRIMATE OF ITALY.
ARCHBISHOP AND METROPOLITAN OF THE ROMAN PROVINCE, SOVEREIGN OF VATICAN CITY.

JOHN XXIII

ANGELO RONCALLI

NOW GLORIOUSLY REIGNING

The direct successor of St. Peter was born in Sotto il Monte, Diocese of Bergamo, Nov. 25, 1881; ordained Priest, Aug. 10, 1904; appointed Apostolic Visitor to Bulgaria and promoted to the Titular See of Areopolis, Mar. 3, 1925; consecrated Archbishop, March 19, 1925; transferred to the Titular See of Mesembria, Nov. 30, 1934, and appointed Apostolic Delegate to Turkey and Greece; Apostolic Nuncio to France, Dec. 23, 1944. Created and proclaimed Cardinal, Jan. 12, 1953; appointed Patriarch of Venice, Jan. 15, 1953. Elected Pope, Oct. 28, 1958; crowned, Nov. 4, 1958.

VATICAN CITY

By virtue of the concordat signed on February 11, 1929, the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, ratifications of which were exchanged on June 7, the Feast of the Sacred Heart, the complete and independent authority of the Pope to rule in his own possessions was recognized by the state. The territorial possessions of the Holy Father are called Vatican City and within its limits the Sovereign Pontiff's authority is recognized as supreme.

The Sovereign of this small state is His Holiness, the Pope.

The government presently is administered by a Pontifical Commission of which His Eminence Cardinal Nicola Canali is President.

The Apostolic Nuncio to Italy is Most Rev. Carlo Grano, Titular Archbishop of Thessalonica.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS

The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. They are advisers of the Supreme Pontiff, and at the death of the Pontiff they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy. With very few exceptions, the Cardinal Priests are Archbishops or Bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are Priests. The Sacred College of Cardinals, when complete ordinarily consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests and 14 Cardinal Deacons. (C.F. Canon 231§1)

The Cardinal Bishops take their title from the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are: Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Palestrina, Sabina, Frascati, Velletri. The Cardinal Dean has united to his See the See of Ostia. The Cardinal Priests take their title from the "Titular Churches" to which they are appointed: the Cardinal Deacons are appointed to other Churches called "Deaconies." The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon is First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the Administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

(The "creation" of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, the "publication and proclamation." The Cardinal is then said to be "reserved in petto," and when proclaimed, he takes the precedence according to date of creation.)

ESTABLISHED A DIOCESE IN 1834; ARCHDIOCESE DEC. 19, 1944, BY DECREE OF POPE PIUS XII.

SQUARE MILES = 13,489

Comprises the counties of Bartholomew, Brown, Clark, Clay, Crawford, Dearborn, Decatur, Fayette, Floyd, Franklin, Hancock, Harrison, Hendricks, Henry, Jackson, Jefferson, Jennings, Johnson, Lawrence, Marion, Monroe, Morgan, Ohio, Orange, Owen, Parke, Perry, Putnam, Ripley, Rush, Scott, Shelby, Switzerland, Union, Vermillion, Vigo, Washington and Wayne, and the township of Harrison in Spencer County, in the southern part of Indiana, with a Total Population (1950 Census) of 1,505,527.

For legal titles of parishes and archdiocesan institutions, consult the Chancery Office.

The Diocese of Vincennes (now Indianapolis) was established by decree of Gregory XVI, May 6, 1834, and the See was fixed at Vincennes. The territory then comprised the entire State of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois.

By a decree of Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the State was erected into the Diocese of Fort Wayne. The southern half of the State remained the Diocese of Vincennes.

The second Bishop of Vincennes, by Apostolic Brief, was permitted to establish his residence either at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette or Indianapolis; the See city, however, to remain at Vincennes. This permission was renewed to the fourth Bishop, with the exception of Lafayette.

On the appointment of the fifth Bishop, he was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, but the Cathedral and title of the See were continued at Vincennes. By an Apostolic Brief dated March 23, 1898, the title of the Diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the Episcopal See in the city of Indianapolis. By the same Brief the Patron Saint of the Diocese is to remain St. Francis Xavier, title of the old Cathedral, Vincennes.

On December 19, 1944, by the Executorial Decree of the Papal Delegate, Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Archbishop of Laodicea, Apostolic Delegate to the United States of North America, the Papal Decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral, Indianapolis, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an Archdiocese, the State of Indiana being the Metropolitan Area. The Dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette in Indiana were created by the same decree and made Suffragan Sees of Indianapolis.
